in Concert on Long Island

Sunday, February 26, 2012

4:00 pm

performing a program including works by Reger, Tournemire, Franck, Vierne, Dupré, Heiller and Cochereau, concluding with an Improvisation by Mr. Latry

Mr. Latry, Titular Organist of the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris, is considered to be one of his generation's most remarkable performers. He is also counted among the most noted "improvisateurs" in the exceptional French tradition.

His activity as a concert organist has taken him to more than fifty countries on five continents. He has also made several recordings that have won him critical acclaim. He is one of the most sought-after organists in the world.

His concert on Long Island celebrates the fortieth anniversary of the Gress-Miles organ installed in 1972 at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Bay Shore.

The concert is co-sponsored by St. Peter's and the Nassau and Suffolk Chapters of the American Guild of Organists.
